Informing the Superintendent of Prisons the rates at which liveries were supplied last time and requesting him to send the estimate soon.

In reply to paragraph 2 of the Board's Proceedings, I have the honor to note below the rates at which this Department can undertake to supply liveries for the Duffadars and Peons of your office according to the samples seen by the Superintendent of Prisons.

Jemadar's or Duffadar's livery — Rs 60 Peons — do — Rs 20

The Board will observe that since the rates for liveries were fixed by Government, a customs duty on all finer cloths and on cloth made of them has been imposed.

Resolution

In Government Order dated 17th September 1894 No. 2259, Judicial, Government directed that civil officers desirous of purchasing on public accounts, articles of kinds which are manufactured in jails, shall invariably buy them from the jail department, unless the Memorandum to the Chief Secretary in the Judicial Department. In para 6 of G.O. No 26 dated 13th January 1894, the cost of the livery of jemadars has been reduced to Rs 38, and of peons to Rs 18. The Inspector-General of Prisons who was asked to supply the liveries, reports, that he will not be able to make them, according to samples sent to him, for less than Rs 60 and Rs 20, respectively, which were the rates previously allowed, in the Separate Revenue Department of the Board's office, and were considered "excessive".

A former Contractor offers, however, to supply the liveries at the maximum rates fixed by Government in G.O. dated 13th January 1894. The Board, ^{accordingly} requests the sanction of Government for getting the liveries made by the Contractor, at the reduced rates; instead of by the Jail Department.
