Sir,

With reference to G.O. dated 30th July 1894 no 1856,
I have the honor to report for the information of Government that Messrs Andrew & Co of Alleppey have now obtained a license [no 197 dated 13th April 1895] from the Government of India (Home Department) permitting them to export to Messrs Francis James & Co London, on behalf of Messrs M.
Mahommed Ally Jevajee & Co Madras, the six cases of percussion caps to which reference is made in the above G.O.
They have forwarded the license to the Dewan and have applied for the usual export permit and the Dewan asks for instructions whether or not he should comply - The period of the license expires after three months from the date of delivery to license holder.

2. The Government of India is presumably unacquainted with the correspondence connected with these caps.

but so far as I am aware no objection exists to allowing export to England as proposed.

I have the honor to be
Sir
your most obedient servant
