WITH ORDER

No. 48.

High Court of Judicature,
Madras, 12th January 1895.

From

H. W. Foster Esquire,
Registrar of the High Court of Judicature,
Appellate Side, Madras.

To

The Honorable C. Gibson,
Acting Chief Secretary to Government,
Fort St. George.

Honorable Sir,

The Government will remember that the High Court's rules and standing orders for the guidance of Subordinate Civil Courts were revised and compiled and published under the High Court's authority by Mr. J. Weir, J. C. S., while on special duty at the end of 1890 and beginning of 1891.

2. The work has proved of such utility that the High Court is anxious to supplement it with a similar compilation of the Criminal rules.

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted. The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes, (G. O., 8th April 1893, No. 239, Public.)

There is a collection of these rules in existence made by Mr. Weir in 1877, but that was anterior to the date of the present Criminal Procedure Code and besides was not in the first instance authoritative. Much of it therefore has been superseded or become obsolete and it is now of little practical utility.

3. It has not been found possible for the Registrar to undertake the work in addition to the current duties of his office. Not only have the rules to be collected and arranged but a considerable amount of revision and correction are necessary and can only be done thoroughly by an officer who can give it undivided attention for a time.

4. It has occurred to the Chief Justice that if the Government approves of his appointment of Mr. Bowie to act as Registrar during my absence on leave, this may be a convenient opportunity for preferring a request for the services of an officer on special duty, as Mr. Bowie may be spared for a short time before actually taking charge as Registrar without disturbance of other arrangements. Mr. Bowie having already acted as Registrar has the necessary knowledge of details to undertake the task and after doing the bulk of the compilation and revision, while on special duty, will be able to see the work through the press after taking charge as Registrar.

5. It is my wish to hand over charge prior to departure on furlough on 28th February and a month will be sufficient time for the completion of the more troublesome part of the work that has to be done. It is understood too that Mr. Bowie will be relieved at Bellare about 24th or 25th January.

b. I am to request, therefore, that, if convenient, His Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to appoint Mr. Bowie on special duty under the orders of the Chief Justice, for the revision of the High Court's Criminal Rules of Practice from 1st February for one month on the same allowances as he would draw if he continued to act as Sub collector.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H. Miller
