GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

The peti states as follows:

Much Public injustice has been done by the way in which the authorities dealt with the "Koravan Murder Case" which occurred at Rangai Gidasinga village. The petition gives the names of the 13 persons who were implicated in the offence, and a list of the offences for which they have on previous occasions undergone punishment. One of the above 13 is a monied man and with his influence has once succeeded in hushing up a case which has almost been committed to Sessions. In the murder case above referred to he tried to exert his influence with the village muniff on whose false report the case was dismissed by the Sub. Collector. If such state of things is allowed to go on unpunished the village and its surroundings have to be abandoned by honest ryots. Under the circumstances the petitioner prays that an enquiry may be instituted into the matter & that justice may not be allowed to be tampered with.
