As to whether the D.M.'s nomination may be approved ~~by~~ rejecting the protests in the linked file? or as to whether the (Vakul's) objections should be referred to the D.M. for report?
From the linked file it appears that the nominee is the brother-in-law of the Deputy Collector who preceded Rastan Singh in office; Rastan Singh speaks of his attainments as remarkable, but the statement is open to question; the letter of recommendation is couched in extravagant language.

12-6-95

I do not see any particular reason why the nominee should not be approved.
That he is a connection of a former D. Col. of Coconada - a man whose personal knowledge is both apt and respectable. is reason for keeping Surajaram Murti Dandor out: he appears from the D. Col.'s letter to be old enough and his position is one befitting him for the post.

There must be something strongly personal at the bottom when an objection to the appl. will go to the expense of employing Mr. Redden Brown to check the appl. 12-6-95

CHIEF SECRETARY
6 JUN. 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Sir
I am instructed by one Chodisetti Venkateswaraiah to bring the following facts to the notice of Government with reference to the nomination of one Suryanarayana Murli Aida, to fill a vacancy as a Bench Magistrate in Coconada Town, by the District Magistrate of Godavari. On the death of K. Narasinga Rao Aida, one of the Bench Magistrates in Coconada Town, in April last, C. V. Aida aforesaid applied to the District Magistrate to be nominated as successor. This application was forwarded for report to the Stationary magistrate and received that Officer's support.

that Officer's report.
C. V. Kaidu is a merchant of some standing & position, has shown his public spirit in various ways, and is 40 years of age.
Mr. Brodie, the District Magistrate, being dead to the District, has, it is believed by the said C. V. Kaidu, based on his claims in favour of Suryasayana murli Kaidu, son of the deceased K. K. R. Kaidu, and brother in law of Dewan Bahadur S. Venkalarama Das Kaidu formerly a District Collector of Coconada.

This Deputy Collector was succeeded at Comada by Mr. Rustum Singh who was formerly a Tahsildar in Kurnool District and a subordinate of Dewani Bahadur P. V. Raida, then Deputy Collector in Kurnool.

As much as he said Suryanarayana murli Raida is a young man of about 21 years of age & has,
it is believed, had no experience in business or public affairs during his father's life time, C. V. Raida, perhaps not unnaturally, believes that his nomination by the District Magistrate is due principally to the fact that he is the brother in law of a Deputy Collector who was the Official Superior & is the friend of Mr. Rustum Durrani whose recommendation had probably great weight with the District Magistrate.

C. V. Raida is also informed and believes that the nomination of Suryanarayana murli Raida is based in part on the ground that he is the son of the deceased Magistrate.

If this be the case, it is submitted that the reason is unsound, in as much as there is no possible connection between this Office of a village Magistrate and that of a Magistrate appointed under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

For these reasons C. V. Raida prays that he may be preferred to Suryanarayana murli Raida as Bench Magistrate of Moradn Town. or that the District Magistrate be directed to make further enquiry into the fitness of his nominee for the post.
