Para II C. Pol. Rules

Re Petrs. Gdo. with para 2 } Copies 2 & 6 D 28/6

MR 22-6-95

Dept 1/7

The petrs state as follows:-

Mr Stevenson the Police Superintendent of Tinnevelly has been retained in the same place for the last 8 years. Ever since his arrival in the district the Police Dept has been grossly mismanaged and the list of crimes much enlarged. He has succeeded in taking in his confidence some head constables & inspectors who are on the alert to fill his purse when any important criminal case is brought to light. The following among others are some instances of the miscarriage of justice complained of.

In the Cape Comorin temple burglary case the Police traced out the thieves and the valuable jewels stolen made a partition of the latter among themselves - the Police Supdt receiving a fourth - taking care however to restore a fourth to the temple. This portion of the jewels the Police entrusted to some Arabs whom they at last arrested and got sentenced for robbery.

In the Srivilliputtur temple robbery case the Pol Supdt received a bribe and set the criminals at large rne. The Station house officer who ced out the jewels at last maged to make a partition of the alu portion between himself and e Superintendent, and with the little Kat remained conducted the case and brought the criminals to book.

In the Kalupumalai reading case the Police Superintendent received a bribe of Rs 4000 from the person who were guilty of murder & incendiarism and implicated their victims the innocent toddy-drawer who had already been put to a loss of 10 Lakhs.
Through the agency of the Embroamm-ram Station officer the Superintenddent has had a profit in that taluk of Rs 25000. Even at the sacrifice of office records the above Superintd jealously shields the inferior Police officers. In the eyes of this officer a man's claims for promotion in the service are in proportion to his capabilities to obtain bribes for his masters by fair means or foul. This view of the matter has made many the detective officers suffer in the Service It is impossible for the petrs to relate in detail the various oppressions they are put to by the Police officers in question. A comparison of the statistics of crimes in his days with that of the previous ones will convince the Govt of the truth of the petrs' complaints.

Under the circumstances the petrs pray that Mr Stevenson the Superintendent complained of may be trans ferred to some other district.
