KR Bombay's argument seems the correct. It is exactly the same as that which was admitted in P.O. of 21.12.1894 No. 3166. Mr. Bullworth however told me that certain Deccanore Regulations had been based on the interpretation of the rules followed in P.O. of 30.11.94 - viz! that the licensing authority shd. be the Commr. of Police, Bombay. Please see if this is the case.

CURRENT NO. 2113

No. 2630 OF 1895.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT:

Bombay Castle, 23 April 1895.

FROM

THE HONOURABLE MR. G. W. VIDAL, I. C. S., Acting Chief SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, BOMBAY;

TO

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, Judicial Department.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 2909, dated the 30th November 1894, regarding the unlicensed importation of a gun from Bombay into the Travancore State.

2. In reply, I am to point out that the authority conveyed in - a Government of India, Foreign Department, letter No. 2945 I, dated 3rd October 1883, is based on

Rule

Printed as enclosure in G.O. 3189-91 of 4 Dec 83

Rule 7 of the Arms Act Rules, - which only authorizes the export of arms and ammunition by land or by river, and that the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, cannot therefore, grant licenses for the export of arms and ammunition by sea.

3. It appears to this Government that clause (a) of Rule 6 D of paragraph VI of the Arms Act Rules applies to the case under reference, and that either the Bombay or the Madras Government would under Government of India, Home Department, Notifications nos 42083 and 42103, dated 10th November 1892, have power to grant a license. From a reference to the memoranda of the Government of of Madras noted in the margin, - ment to issue licenses when the export is to Native States under their control. This practice appears to this Government to be based on a sound principle, namely that the Government chiefly interested in the exportation should grant the license for it, and this Government would prefer to adhere to this practice. In view however of what is stated in

in the letter under acknowledgment, I am to enquire whether the Government of Madras have any desire to alter it and to request that this Government may be favoured with their views on the subject.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. G. G.

Acting Chief Secretary to Government.
