This Enclosure the Right Hon:

The Governor in Council

Fort-Saint George.

The humble petition of

Cowrit no 808 Pedda Nagadu

Composed in the Secretary

Madam

Shawson.

that he was tried by the Sessions Court-Bellary in CE No 58 of 94 for murder and sentenced to transportation for life -
On appeal this sentence was confirmed -

2 The Petitioner did not commit the above offence; his name was accidentally included in the case. How this came about is as follows. In the village of Errathimmarajacheruvu there are two brothers Petha Nagadu and Chinna Nagadu. In the first report of this case their names were mentioned - Somehow the Petitioner, who bears the same name was arrested and sentenced. In fact the petitioner did not commit the offence -

3 - At the time when the above offences were committed the Petitioner was posted as a watchman for the tank of Eerathinima Rayachemuvu. While so the fact that the Petitioner committed the offences then is incredible -

4 When the Petitioners were leaving the tank, his cottage in the night, the Police came up, arrested the Petitioner as being one of the culprits and had him convicted.

5 The Petitioners therefore pray that the Government may be pleased to cancel the sentence unjustly inflicted on the Petitioners.
