Right Honorable the

Fort St George

The humble petition of Convict no. 99 30
V. Kutti Raman, 3rd prisoner in Calendar Case no. 46 of 94
on the file of the Sessions Judge of South Malabar

Most Respectfully Sheweth

That your Excellency's humble Petitioner was convicted of robbery (Section 392 I P C) and sentenced to 5 years R I of which 3 months to be spent in solitary confinement by the Sessions Judge South Malabar and that the sentence on appeal was confirmed by the High Court Madras

That he knows nothing regarding this case and that he is not guilty

That your Petitioner was at enmity with the Head Constable who framed this charge against your Petitioner

That the cause of the enmity is as follows:-

That the Head Constable had given some of his clothes to your Petitioner to be washed - -

That your Petitioner washed his clothes and took them to him and asked him for the hire which he said would give afterwards but in spite of your Petitioner asking him often for the hire which he did not give it and that your Petitioner telling him that he would not leave the place till the hire was paid, the Head Constable abused and insulted your Petitioner very much and then Petitioner also did the same in return - ever since then the Head Constable bears bitter hatred towards your Petitioner which was manifest by charging your Petitioner with a crime he did not know of -

That your Petitioner was only charged after the 3 other prisoners in this case were charged and that it was done by the Head Constable just to have his revenge

That your Petitioner does not know the complainant

That the Head Constable brought the complainant and his witnesses to the station when Petitioner was in remand that they may see your Petitioner and depose having known him &ca

That your Petitioner's witnesses were not examined at the Sessions Court-

Governor in Council

Fort St George

The humble Petition of Convict no 28 K. Kuttan 1st prisoner in Calendar Case no 46 of 94 on the file of the Sessions Judge of South Malabar

Most Respectfully Sheweth

That your Excellency's humble Petitioner was convicted of robbery under Section 392 I P C and sentenced to one years R. I and that the sentence on appeal was confirmed by the High Court Madras

That he has not committed robbery.

That the complainant's nephew and Petitioner were at enmity with each other.

That the cause of this enmity is as follows:-

That there was a house in Nelambulathil Kelu Kutti Nair's compound which the complainant's younger brother had bought.

That after he had purchased the house he was desirous of buying the paramba also and to this effect he came to the owner.

That your Petitioner had already come to terms about buying the same compound with the owner when the complainant's younger brother came to this house on the same errand and as your Petitioner and the owner had come to terms they told the complainant's younger brother so and therefore he had to go away much disappointed

That after this had happened your Petitioner and he (complainant's brother) had high words about the same affair and very often he threatened that he would bring Petitioner into trouble

That it is merely owing to the paramba business that your Petitioner was thus falsely implicated

That your Petitioner does not know the 3rd and 4th prisoners and that they stay more than two or three miles distant from your Petitioners house and that the above said prisoners also admitted this fact

Under the above circumstances your humble Petitioner begs most respectfully that your Excellency in Council will be kindly pleased to order his release from Jail and for which act of kindness and charity your Excellency's humble Petitioner shall as in duty bound

That the complainant and Petitioner were not on good terms and that the reason for the same is as follows:—

That your Petitioner had lent a dog of his to the complainant when he was going hunting and that the complainant had promised to return the animal after the hunt but did not do so and therefore your Petitioner had high words with the complainant and it was owing to this that your Petitioner was falsely joined in this case.

That your Petitioner was not acquainted with the other 3 prisoners before they were brought together at the trial of this case

That had your Petitioner's witnesses been examined, it would have been materially beneficial to him.

That your Petitioner's pleader was won over to the complainant's side and it was therefore that he did not examine the witnesses

That the chief witness of the complainant was a boy aged only 12 years and his words have been given much weight to

That your Petitioner was searched but nothing was found in his possession.

Under the above circumstances your humble Petitioner most respectfully craves that your Excellency in Council will be kindly pleased to reverse the severe sentence passed on your humble Petitioner who is innocent and order his release & for which act of kindness and charity your Excellency's humble
