On the 6th February 1895 P. Subbara-mudu and J. Verragadu the inhabitants of Venkataswari in challenged Subbayya the pet's brother for a wrestling match and took him to the bowling ground near Kummaragutta tank. They beat him to death there, carried him near the pet's house and left him there with his life al-most extinct. The pet thereupon repor-ted this to the Dresser who attended on the above Subbayya, administered some medi-cine to him and went away assuring the pet at the same time that there need be no fear of Subbayya's death. The Dresser was however a friend of the above two offenders. The pet's brother Subbayya, was expected in spite of the Dresser's as-surance, died soon after. The pet there-upon requested the Dresser to hold a pos-mortem examination and to give a cer-tificate. But the Dresser without ge-nerally heeding to the pet's request, managed to have the corpse cremated by the two her persons who murdered the man.

 The petor then lodged a complaint in the Court of the Sub-Magistrate of Ven-katagiri who referred it to the Deputy Magistrate who dismissed the case as the evidence was wanting and promised to take it up if the petor produced a sufficient number of witnesses. The petor has not obtained justice as the offenders have not been remanded. The petor prays that Govt will be pleased to hold an En-quiry into the matter and mete out due punishment to the offenders Such murders as that related above are not infrequently committed in Venkatagiri. If Govt does not ~~make~~ thoroughly investigate the case now brought to notice the petor has to meet the same fate as his brother in the hand of the offenders.
