SIR,

In returning your endorsement No 1071 dated the 17 May 1895 I have the honor to state that the Superintendent Lunatic Asylum, Madras reports that he considers the lunatic in question fit for release without security but suggests that, as he behaves in a childish silly manner and appears incapable of looking after himself it would be advisable to hand him over to the Charge of some relative or friend. In this opinion I agree.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

attention is invited to the notes

The lunatic mother is unable to maintain him & the D. S. Inspector reports that he has no other relative. The D. S. has no objection to releasing him without security, but suggests that, as the man behaves in a childish silly manner & appears incapable of looking after himself, it would be advisable to hand him over to the charge of some relative or friend.
