No. 5.

To His Excellency The Right Honourable The Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD,

The memorials forwarded with your Government's Letter, No. 1, dated 2nd January 1895, have been considered by me in Council.

2. The main prayer, which is common to all, is identical with that submitted last year by Mr. Justice Rampini, and disallowed in my Despatch No. 51, of the 13th December 1894. I request that the decision then announced may be communicated to these memorialists also.

3. The only memorial requiring special notice is that addressed to me by Mr. H. W. C. Carnduff, who has added a prayer that more favourable rules be framed regarding the privilege and vacation leave of District and Sessions Judges. I concur with your Excellency in Council in the opinion that in Provinces where the Judges are ordinarily able to leave their vacation at I am not sure that this is the case at present. It may be taken into consideration along with the other points of the letter under reply, is stated.

I request that this point may be taken into consideration along with the other matter which, in paragraph 3 of the letter under reply, is stated to be receiving attention from your Excellency in Council.

4. If it should be found that Judges in Northern India cannot count on being able to avail themselves of their recess, the difficulty might perhaps be obviated by dividing the Courts into groups, and empowering one of the Judges in each group to perform the vacation work arising in all the Courts of that group.

CIRCULAR of the Government of Bombay, No. 3233, dated 29th May 1893.

It has been proposed that Sessions Judges might be permitted to absent themselves from their Districts during the vacation allowed to Civil Courts therein, in cases in which with due regard to the proper and prompt disposal of criminal work, it may be possible to appoint as Additional Sessions Judges such Judges of neighbouring Districts as may be willing and able to undertake during such vacation the criminal work of both Districts.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to intimate his approval of the above proposals subject to the following conditions:—

Government must in each such case, not less than three weeks before the commencement of such vacation, be satisfied. —

(i) That the Court of the Sessions Judge, who, it is proposed, should be appointed Additional Sessions Judge, is accessible within twenty-four hours from the Court of the Sessions Judge who wishes to absent himself;

(ii) That the Sessions Judge so proposed as Additional Sessions Judge is willing to undertake, in addition to the work of his own Court, the criminal work in the District of the Sessions Judge who wishes to absent himself;

(iii) That the arrangement proposed will entail no undue delay in the disposal of the civil or criminal work in either District;

(iv) That the arrangement proposed is to entail no additional expense to Government either on account of travelling allowance, deputation allowance or any other charge on the public revenues.

The above conditions having been satisfied, an Additional Sessions Judge will ordinarily be appointed, under section 9 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, to exercise during such vacation jurisdiction in the Court of the Sessions Judge who wishes to absent himself, and, under section 193 of the same Code, be directed to try all cases committed and hear all appeals presented to such Court during that period.

Simla, the June 1895.

SIR,

WITH reference to your letters noted in the margin, I am directed to forward the enclosed copy of a Judicial Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State, No. 5, dated the 21st February 1895, conveying orders on the memorials presented by certain members of the Indian Civil Service employed in the Lower Provinces and Assam, on the subject of the prospects of officers who have elected the Judicial Branch of the Service. I am to request that, with the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the decision of the Secretary of State disallowing their prayer may be communicated to the memorialists.

2. The suggestion made in paragraph 4 of the Secretary of State's Despatch was conveyed to the Bengal Government by the Calcutta High Court in Mr. Carnduff's letter No. 2168, dated the 12th August 1892, which was communicated to the Government of India with Mr. Cotton's No. 411-J. D., dated the 8th September 1892. The Governor General in Council understands that His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has not as yet given effect to the arrangements then proposed by the High Court, but similar arrangements have in the meantime been introduced in the Bombay Presidency, and I am directed to invite the attention of the Bengal Government to a circular, No. 3233, dated the 29th May 1893, issued by the Government of Bombay upon the subject. The Governor General in Council is anxious that a similar measure of relief should be afforded to the District and Sessions Judges in Bengal, and I am to request that, with the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, a scheme may, in communication with the High Court, be devised for dividing the Sessions Courts in the Province into groups, and empowering one of the Judges in each group to perform the vacation work of the group. His Excellency in Council would be glad to receive in due course a report to show how effect has been given to this proposal.
