Prisoner in Bellary Session

Case No 18 of 1895 (Criminal appeal

No 171 of 1895 on the file of the High Court)

I am directed to inform you that the

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back ; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted. The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes. (G. O., 8th April 1893, No. 239, Public.)

the Honourable the Judges who heard the appeal are of opinion that in ^{the} circumstances in which the Prisoner caused the death of the child, she deserves a severe sentence, and would accordingly recommend that she be sentenced to 7 years rigorous imprisonment.
