CURRENT NO. 32
SOUTH CANARA DISTRICT MAGISTRATE

Mangalore

29 June 1895

From

W. B. Welsh Esquire,

District Magistrate of South Canara.

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Judicial Department,

Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honor to recommend a fee of Rs 130 to Mr. J. Bhavani Rao, first Grade Pleader, for conducting the prosecution in Session Case No. 15 of 1895, in the place of Mr. J. M. Ramaduo, the Public Prosecutor who is absent in Madras for giving instructions to the Government Pleader under the orders of Government in G.O. No. 861 dated 26th April 1895.

2. The Head Constable and two Constables of the Ponnampoor Station were committed for trial under Sections 348, 331 and 330. Indian Penal Code, and another person Linga Bhatta charged with abetment of the above offences. The original complaint against the police was of murder and to torture. It was first referred by the District Inspector as false, but the Head Assistant Magistrate ordered a regular enquiry which resulted in committal to Sessions. Eleven witnesses were examined for the prosecution and the trial lasted $12\frac{1}{2}$ days. It ended in the conviction of the 1st and 2nd alone under Section 342 I.O.B. only, and a sentence of three months' simple imprisonment was awarded to each.

3. In connection with the G.O. referred to in para 1, I beg to report that I have requested Mr. Ramadas to return to Mangalore as soon as he has given instructions to the Government Pleader, Madras, if his presence is not absolutely required at the hearing of the appeal in the murder cases. It is uncertain when the High Court will hear the appeals. He had to go to Madras as it was positively stated in answer to repeated enquiries that the hearing would be on 5th June. It is now reported that the hearing may come off probably on the 10th prox.

-mo.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

Ch. J. J. J.
District Magistrate
