3- Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a continuation of the letter or a separate note.

3- If in fact the 2, 3, 4, & 5 prosecution witnesses have seen the petitioner going with the deceased boy at the time of the commission of the offence, the fact would at once have been reported to the village Magistrate and there would have been nothing to prevent that officer to report the matter immediately to the proper authorities.

4 - It is clear from the records that and the Village Magistrate's report that the evidence of the said prosecution witnesses was got up subsequently. but this was not noticed either by the Sessions Court or High Court.

5. The High Court has failed to examine minutely the circumstantial evidence given by the Prosecution witnesses and therefore the opinion formed by the High Court is not valid.

6. The Petitioner therefore pray, that His Excellency may be pleased to call for the original records of this case and examine the same and cancel the sentence and order the release of the Petitioner from custody.
