Would it not be well to get a professional opinion about the present building + to enquire whether there was any likelihood of being able to sell or utilize it?

The proposal to construct a court house for the District Munsiff at Narsapur is Approved.

Extract from letter No. 204 dated 16th July 1894 from the District Munsiff of Narsapur to the District Judge of Godavari.

I beg to state that the present Court house was built for dwelling purposes some 40 years ago, and it was purchased by the Government for Court house for Rs 1400 in 1863.

2. In this building there is no sufficient accommodation for the present establishment of 7 clerks, 3 process clerks, Nazir Examiner of Copies and 3 Copyists.

3. As for the accommodation available in the main building, old Court house, it as per accompanying sketch plan, it contains a hall B. for holding Court, one middle room D and two verandah rooms E. H and a private room F.

4. The Head Clerk and his assistant sit in the room D (12 x 12 ft); 3 clerks in the verandah room E. (18 1/2 x 6 1/2 ft); and Examiner of Copies and 3 Copyists in the verandah room H (21 x 7 ft). In the out house B there are only two rooms I and J of which the former (19 x 16 ft) is occupied by the Nazir and a clerk and 3 process clerks, besides Nazir's assistant amin, and the latter (19 x 11 1/2 ft) is being used as record room; and the record rack itself occupies 24 sq ft; and the remaining space is hardly

Sufficient

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted.
The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes, (G. O., 8th April 1893, No. 239, Public.)

Sufficient for the present. The pews, desks and the benches on which suit registers and Gazettes are kept.

5. Moreover, the main building was built long ago with Country wood beams and palm-leaf rafters and purlins; and most of the rafters and purlins were rotten or eaten up by white ants and some of them would, I think, be broken, or give way sooner or later; and if so, the portions of the roof resting on the said rotten or broken rafters and purlins would come down.

6. Further, the roof of the Court house, specially the northern portion, which rests on the brick pillars, which were constructed in the place of a wall, on which that part of the roof was resting, and which was removed for including the northern verandah in the Court hall for widening it, appears to have been already bent down, and therefore, it is not, I think, in a safe condition; and the few rooms available for the clerks to sit in, which are narrow and without sufficient means for getting free ventilation and light, are not at all sufficient for the present establishment; and the Court hall which also is narrow and small would be daily overcrowded by parties, witnesses and visitors. Consequently the

The present Court building is neither sufficient nor fit to be used as a Court house.

7. I, therefore, request that your honor will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the construction of a new Court house, similar to the one built for the Rajahmundry District Court.

Letter from the District Judge Godavari, dated 13th November 1894, No 1322. To the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras.

With reference to the enclosed extract from the Narsapur District Munsiff's letter No 204, dated 16th July 1894 bringing to my notice the want of accommodation in, and the dilapidated state of his Court house, I have the honor to request that the High Court will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the preparation of an estimate for the construction of a new building on the present site, according to the type design.

High Court of Judicature, Madras, 3rd December 1894.

From

H. W. Foster Esquire, Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras.

To

The Honorable J. F. Price, C.S.I., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

Honorable Sir,

I am directed to forward letter dated 13th ultimo, No. 1322, and its enclosure from the District Judge of Godavari bringing to notice that the Court of the District Mun--sif of Narsapur is located in a building which besides being incommodious and unsuitable for a Court is in a condition of very bad repair. The roof especially is x

in in a bad state. It says seriously and some of the rafters are decayed and have suffered damage from white ants, so that the expense of restoring it to a satisfactory condition would be heavy, while the ventilation and lighting of all the rooms are very defective. The building appears to have been built as a dwelling house and was purchased by Government ^{4.027/4/63 gl} in 1863 for use by the Court. ^{210647 jud}

2. Having regard to its dilapidated condition and its unsuitability for a Court-house, the District Judge proposes construction of a new building on the same site and the High Court supports his proposal. I am accordingly directed

directed to request that His Excel-lency the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the construction of a new building and order the preparation of the necessary plans and estimates therefor after the type design is revised.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H. M. L.

FOR ORDERS.

Please see reverse of the current on which is put up a draft order approving the proposal. Would it not be well before according sanction to ascertain what can be done with the old building & to get a professional opinion as to whether there is any urgent necessity to incur this expenditure

$\frac{8}{11-12}$

I submit that plans and estimates may be called for: the building is evidently a ramshackle huddle down affair and should be replaced by a new one as soon as funds will admit.

13/12/94

We have only the Luff's opinion - I think the P.W.D. might be asked for the suggested report
