CURRENT No. 469 of 1895

CURRENT No. 469 of 1895

To

His Excellency the Right Honourable

Sir Beilby Lawley, Baron Wenlock, G. C. I. E.,

GOVERNOR OF FORT SAINT GEORGE,

MADRAS.

Humble Petition of J. L. Boyer, Acting
 Inspector of Police, Kundapur Division, South Canara District, Mangalore,
 dated June 1895.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That Your Excellency's Petitioner who counts an honest and faithful service of nearly 10 years as a servant of Your Excellency's Government was entertained as a Fourth Class Inspector of Police in May 1893, and was ordered to do duty in the South Canara District.

2. That in May last the Inspector General of Police was pleased to pass orders declaring that Petitioner's probation should cease, but in the meantime Petitioner has been allowed to continue to act as Inspector of Kundapur, being confirmed as a Head Constable.

3. That from the circumstances detailed below, Your Excellency will be pleased to find that the case of Petitioner was a peculiar and hard one, and the Petitioner begs most respectfully to submit that the Inspector General of Police was pleased during the course of his inspection of this District to promise in the presence of the Superintendent to grant Petitioner's prayer for extension and Petitioner trusts that he would have been good enough to modify the rigor of the hard and fast rule in Petitioner's case, if the rules had left him the option of doing so, and he humbly trusts that the Inspector General of Police will be pleased to support Petitioner's prayer.

Number

4. That for reasons stated in the last para, Petitioner is obliged to approach Your Excellency's Government earnestly trusting, that on a kind and favourable consideration of this Petition Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to extend Petitioner's period of probation for not passing which, the order of the Inspector General in question has been passed.

5. That Petitioner's not passing the examination in Police orders was a mere chance, and Petitioner fully trusts that his immediate Head will be pleased to endorse Petitioner's representation that in every instance where the Police orders are to be put in practice, Petitioner has acted in perfect accordance with the rules.

6. That before being put in charge of a Division Your Excellency's Petitioner has undergone a searching examination in all the rules of practice by the District Superintendent of Police.

7. That Petitioner has passed the under-mentioned tests, and was also obliged to study the Canarese language and pass in it while having to discharge the duties of a large and troublesome Division. In this respect Petitioner had more to study than other probationary Inspectors.

8. From these facts Your Excellency will be pleased to observe that though Petitioner had little time at his disposal yet he is quite conversant with the subject in which unfortunately he has not passed. It may also be added here that Petitioner has passed some of the examinations in the Special and Local Laws and thereby has actually passed a part of the Departmental Test Part II.

9. That the Sessions Judge and Magistracy of the District will, Petitioner trusts, bear testimony to the good work done by him in his Division with regard to detection and prevention of crime.

10. That Petitioner humbly trusts that Your Excellency will be pleased to take into Your Excellency's favourable consideration the fact that Petitioner has passed:

- (1) The Judicial Criminal Lower Examination.
- (2) The Vernacular in Canarese.
- (3) The Salt Act.
- (4) The Abkari Act.
- (5) The Civil Leave Code.
- (6) The Account Code.
- (7) The Mounted and Foot Drill.

This taken with the fact that already Petitioner has got two year's experience in the Police Force, and also that Petitioner has proved his fitness as a Police Inspector will, Petitioner trusts, convince Your Excellency of the advisability of retaining a trained man like Petitioner instead of introducing a novice in Petitioner's place while such state of affairs could be easily prevented by giving Petitioner a chance of passing the Examination.

11. That Petitioner begs to be excused the liberty of representing to Your Excellency that he counts nearly 10 years faithful and honest service as a servant of Your Excellency's Government. That he is an Eurasian by birth, with a wife and 3 children, and that the pay he was drawing was just enough for his living. But now under the present arrangement his pay will be reduced to about a third, and Petitioner begs to submit that his future privations and difficulties can be better imagined than described.

12. That Petitioner's object in making the representations continued in the last para, is, that they may not be the sole consideration but that they may be considered along with Petitioner's other qualifications and other circumstances enumerated already.

Petitioner therefore in conclusion prays that Your Excellency may be graciously pleased to take Petitioner's hard case and the above circumstances into Your Excellency's kind and favourable consideration, and to give Petitioner a chance of passing the Test. For which act of kindness Your Excellency's Petitioner shall ever pray,

L. Boyer
Inspector of Police

Note.
This seems rather a hard case: the man seems to be willing to work and to be well spoken of: might he not be put in pending the result of the test exam: However Rules are rules and it is dangerous to the 29 of Police to make exceptions when 24 JUL 95

I have the honor to submit for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council a Memorial from T. K. Boyer, a Head Constable in South Canada.

2. The Memorialist was entertained as Inspector on 11 April 1893, and under Clause (2) para 5 of G.O., 1154, dated 5 July 1889, he should have passed the Departmental Test held in December 1894, as he failed I directed as I was compelled to do, that his probation should cease. He was allowed subsequently to act as Inspector until the officer appointed in his place joined. He now asks that the probationary period may be extended.

3. I cannot recommend that this officer's Probationary period be extended - an officer has been appointed in his place - I consider, however, that if he passed the test next December, he may be allowed to be re-appointed when a vacancy occurs. I heard a good account of the man when in South Canada and from what I saw of him, I believe him to be anxious to do his duty as Inspector. He has passed several examinations and can no doubt if he gives the time, pass in Police Orders. If he does pass in this subject this year, I shall have no objection whatever to giving the man an Inspector's appointment when one falls vacant to suit him.

I have the honor to be,
 Sir,
 Your most obedient servant,
 M. M. M. M. M.
