True

Statement of Aramane Chouter Kunhamme Shetty of Puttige Kasba Village, Taken by The Revenue Inspector, Muddabidri Division on 19th May 1895.

I heard The Taluk Taked no 2924 and other papers, read over to me, and saw the sketch.
Plot no 1 on the sketch was government land.
It was, with my consent, added to the land of the Registration Office and a wall was raised to it. With regard to it, I have not the least objection. Plot no 2 on the sketch forms a portion of muli way no 97 of Puttige Village in my enjoyment. Its extent is exactly the same as shown in the present statement. The Kustala of this way stand in the name of my deceased mother Uennahamma Devi. Plot no 2 on the sketch was already included in the land around the Registration Office, a wall was raised and (the ground) levelled. As I was assured that I would be given Government plot no 3 on the sketch in exchange for my own land, I gave my consent to part with plot no 2, and I did not give it with a view of receiving its value. Even now I am not willing to receive its value.
If the assessment of plot no 3 is more than that of the plot given by me, I am willing to pay the excess. No one will be affected, if the said plot no 3 on the sketch is given to me. The shops, buildings &c adjoining it on the north are mine. The land and buildings &c on the other side of the

the public road lying to the South of it are also mine. I, therefore, beg that orders may be passed that as originally promised by Sub-officer, plot no. 3 may be given to me in exchange for my own, and excess assp. ment, if any, taken from me. The land added to the Sub-Registration Office is a better field under cultivation. The usual rent of better fields here is Rs 6 per acre. The said plot no. 2 on the sketch was assessed at the rate of one rupee per acre. I heard the statement read over to me and it is correct.

(Signed) Chouter Kunhamma Shetty.

Statement taken again - The whole substance of my above statement is - that plot no. 3 should be given to me in exchange for my land plot no. 2. If not, my own land should be given back to me. I heard this also, read over to me and it is correct.

(Signed) Chouter Kunhamma Shetty.

Read over to him in Canarese which he understands and was admitted by him to be correct.
