Letter—to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Financial), dated 18th May 1895, No. 1064, Judicial.

I am directed to solicit the sanction of the Government of India to the following alteration in the scale of travelling allowance payable to District Registrars.

2. The pay of these officers ranges in this Presidency from Rs. 500 to Rs. 100, in addition to which they receive a commission on the collections made by them. Under the Civil Service Regulations they are, when travelling, entitled to either—

(i) daily allowance of four annas for every Rs. 25 of their pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 3 [Article 1167 (ii)]; or
(ii) double second-class fare when travelling by railway [Article 1107 (a)]; or
(iii) a mileage rate of four annas for distance travelled by road, provided the distance exceeds 20 miles (Article 1127).

3. The daily allowance admissible is calculated on pay exclusive of commission and the result is that the allowances drawn by officers in the several grades are as follows:—

| Grade. | Number. | Pay. | Daily allowance. |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | Rs. | Rs. A. P. |
| I .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 1 | 500 | 3 0 0 |
| II .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 2 | 300 | 3 0 0 |
| III .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 4 | 250 | 2 8 0 |
| IV .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 6 | 200 | 2 0 0 |
| V .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 6 | 175 | 1 12 0 |
| VI .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 3 | 150 | 1 8 0 |
| VII .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 1 | 100 | 1 0 0 |

It will be seen that the three senior officers are entitled to draw a daily allowance of Rs. 3, while the four next draw Rs. $2\frac{1}{2}$, and the remaining sixteen from Re. 1 to Rs. 2. I am to point out that the duties performed by all these officers are of precisely the same nature, and that they are of the same social and official position. Their actual needs when travelling do not therefore in the least degree depend upon the grade in which they happen to be. A daily allowance of Rs. 3 appears to His Excellency the Governor in Council the lowest amount upon which they can travel in a manner befitting their position as district heads of their department, and he therefore strongly recommends the grant to District Registrars in this Presidency of travelling allowance at this rate. Inasmuch as this involves an addition to Appendix No. 25, Part II, of the Civil Service Regulations, the sanction of the Government of India is necessary to the proposed change, and His Excellency in Council trusts that this will not be refused, as he has no doubt that the inadequacy of the daily allowance at present admissible is not only a frequent source of hardship to individual officers, but is also prejudicial to the well-being of the Registration Department, in so far as it creates a tendency on the part of District Registrars to neglect the duty of inspecting subordinate offices because of the expense of travelling.

Letter—to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Financial), dated 18th May 1895, No. 1064, Judicial.

I am directed to solicit the sanction of the Government of India to the following alteration in the scale of travelling allowance payable to District Registrars.

2. The pay of these officers ranges in this Presidency from Rs. 500 to Rs. 100, in addition to which they receive a commission on the collections made by them. Under the Civil Service Regulations they are, when travelling, entitled to either—

(i) daily allowance of four annas for every Rs. 25 of their pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 3 [Article 1167 (ii)]; or
(ii) double second-class fare when travelling by railway [Article 1107 (a)]; or
(iii) a mileage rate of four annas for distance travelled by road, provided the distance exceeds 20 miles (Article 1127).

3. The daily allowance admissible is calculated on pay exclusive of commission and the result is that the allowances drawn by officers in the several grades are as follows:—

| Grade. | Number. | Pay. | Daily allowance. |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | RS. | RS. A. P. |
| I .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 1 | 500 | 3 0 0 |
| II .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 2 | 300 | 3 0 0 |
| III .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 4 | 250 | 2 8 0 |
| IV .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 6 | 200 | 2 0 0 |
| V .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 6 | 175 | 1 12 0 |
| VI .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 3 | 150 | 1 8 0 |
| VII .. .. .. .. .. .. .. | 1 | 100 | 1 0 0 |

It will be seen that the three senior officers are entitled to draw a daily allowance of Rs. 3, while the four next draw Rs. 2½, and the remaining sixteen from Re. 1 to Rs. 2. I am to point out that the duties performed by all these officers are of precisely the same nature, and that they are of the same social and official position. Their actual needs when travelling do not therefore in the least degree depend upon the grade in which they happen to be. A daily allowance of Rs. 3 appears to His Excellency the Governor in Council the lowest amount upon which they can travel in a manner befitting their position as district heads of their department, and he therefore strongly recommends the grant to District Registrars in this Presidency of travelling allowance at this rate. Inasmuch as this involves an addition to Appendix No. 25, Part II, of the Civil Service Regulations, the sanction of the Government of India is necessary to the proposed change, and His Excellency in Council trusts that this will not be refused, as he has no doubt that the inadequacy of the daily allowance at present admissible is not only a frequent source of hardship to individual officers, but is also prejudicial to the well-being of the Registration Department, in so far as it creates a tendency on the part of District Registrars to neglect the duty of inspecting subordinate offices because of the expense of travelling.

It will be seen that the three senior officers are entitled to draw a daily allowance of Rs. 3, while the four next draw Rs. 2½, and the remaining sixteen from Re. 1 to Rs. 2. I am to point out that the duties performed by all these officers are of precisely the same nature, and that they are of the same social and official position. Their actual needs when travelling do not therefore in the least degree depend upon the grade in which they happen to be. A daily allowance of Rs. 3 appears to His Excellency the Governor in Council the lowest amount upon which they can travel in a manner befitting their position as district heads of their department, and he therefore strongly recommends the grant to District Registrars in this Presidency of travelling allowance at this rate. Inasmuch as this involves an addition to Appendix No. 25, Part II, of the Civil Service Regulations, the sanction of the Government of India is necessary to the proposed change, and His Excellency in Council trusts that this will not be refused, as he has no doubt that the inadequacy of the daily allowance at present admissible is not only a frequent source of hardship to individual officers, but is also prejudicial to the well-being of the Registration Department, in so far as it creates a tendency on the part of District Registrars to neglect the duty of inspecting subordinate offices because of the expense of travelling.
