Remarks or explanation given of the Surgeon by Assistant Surgeon General

Date of Visit Observations & recommendations by Official Visitors

Dec 21. Inspected the Hospital with the Superintendent and Surgeon Captain Chavis. Found everything clean and in order. The work of covering the wells is still in progress.
Found three men and one female for discharge or recovery.
One of them S. Moya, was admitted for insanity in regard to moral and political questions in connection with the recent Mople riots. He has been quiet for over five months and as his health is said to be deteriorating he has been recommended for release, but in view of the somewhat disturbed state of the country it seems desirable to draw his special attention of the District Magistrate to the fact as it is possible that a return to his friends and former associations might cause a recurrence of his insanity.
The condition of the inmates appears to be good - about 12 males and 6 females are in hospital.
