of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras

Sir,

The Sheristadar of this District Court, B.
V. Jagayya Aidiu, is a native of Rajahmundry who entered the Subordinate Judicial establishment and rose until two years ago he was appointed Sheristadar by Mr. Ross. It recently came to the notice of the High Court that the Sheristadar has numerous relatives and connections in the Godavari

District Court, Godavari
Rajahmundry, 17th August 1895

Godavari District and the High Court expressed an opinion that it is desirable to transfer the Sheristadar to another District. I submitted to the High Court that Mr Ross knew of these relations when he appointed Jogayya Naidu to be Sheristadar, that both Mr Ross and I think highly of this Sheristadar, who is a hard-working officer, and that I had not seen any partiality in the Sheristadar towards his kinsmen.

In answer to this the High Court says that there is no aspersion upon the character of the Sheristadar, who is well spoken of by District Judges, but that the Sheristadar, who has so many relations in the Godavari District, will probably be himself more comfortable in a District where he would not be hampered by so many connections.

The High Court, therefore, directs me to move Government under Section 24 A of the Madras Civil Courts Act to transfer this Sheristadar to Vizagapatam and to transfer the Vizagapatam

Sheristadar

Sheristadar to this Court.

2. I have, therefore, the honor to enclose for the information of Government a list of the connections of the Sheristadar in this District and to request that under Section 24 A of (Madras Civil Courts Act) Act III of 1873, Jogayya Naidu may be transferred to Vizagapatam and B. Jogaraju Pantulu may be transferred to Rajahmundry.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. T. Mackenzie
District Judge.

Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras.

To

The Honorable J. F. Price, C. S. I.,

Chief Secretary to Government,

Fort Saint George.

Honorable Sir,

In forwarding, with its enclosure, a letter addressed to Government by the District Judge of Godavari, dated the 17th instant, No. 1078, requesting the transfer of the Godavari District ^{Court} Sheristadar to the Vizagapatam District Court and of the Vizagapatam District Court Sheristadar to the Godavari District Court, I am directed to state that, in consequence of petitions received, the attention of the High Court was directed to the numerous relations which the Sheristadar of the Godavari District Court has in that District. The list now forwarded by the District Judge does not appear exhaustive for another and larger list was admitted to be substantially correct. There appear to be certain factions at Rajahmundry and though the High Court knows nothing against the Sheristadar, and he is well spoken of by the District Judges under whom he has served, it appears desirable, for his own sake as well as on public grounds, that he should be employed in a District where the number of his connections is not so likely to afford plausible grounds of complaint. For this reason the High Court suggested to the District Judge that the Government should be moved to make the desired transfer under section

section 24A of the Civil Courts Act.

I have the honor to be,

Honorable Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

D. W. Conie

Ag. Registrar.
