There seems to be no necessity which is experienced under the present system is in the case of emergent applications to admit to

The Honorable J. F. Price, C. S., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

Honorable Sir,

With reference to G. O. dated the 12th ultimo, No. 1465, Judicial, communicating for remarks, letter from the Government of India, Home Department, dated 27th June 1895, Judicial
No. 1025, requesting that a scheme may be devised for dividing the Sessions Courts in the Province into groups and empowering one of the Judges in each group to perform the vaca-tion work of the group, I am directed to state that no necessity arises in this Province for any such Rules as have been proposed by the Government of Bombay. In this Presidency, special sessions are held if the Court does not adjourn at the termination of the regular sessions and sessions are held again immediately after the recess.

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted.
The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes. (G. O. 8th April 1893, No. 289, Public.)

The High Court has never required Sessions Judges to remain at their stations during the vacation and to do so would be to take away the whole value of the holiday.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
D. W. Glowie
Ag. Registrar.
