SIR,

Enclosures.

With reference to endorsement, dated 11th July 1895, No 1590 on letter from the Government of India, dated 14th June 1895, No 3 Police, I have the honor to state that none of the Cantonments in this Presidency are in a position to pay any portion of the cost of the Police except that at Wellington. Vide G.O. No 2440, dated 22nd November 1893, p. 2.

During 1893-94 a contribution at the rate of only Rs 30 per mensem was paid from the Cantonment Fund at Wellington towards the maintenance of the Police there while the cost on account of pay alone of the men employed was Rs 136 per mensem (1 European Head Constable, 14th Grade Head Constable, 5, 1st class Constables and 6, 2nd class Constables). Vide G.O. No 531, dated

3^d March 1894, J.D. During 1894-95 the Fund was not in a position to defray any portion of the cost. Vide G.O. No. 609, dated 23^d March 1895, J.D. So, there was no occasion for levying the Superannuation charge of annas 3 each per mensem for Policemen employed in cantonments in this Presidency.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

Mammell.

SIR,

With reference to your endorsement N^o 1590, dated the 11th of July 1895 on letter from the Government of India, Home Department N^o $\frac{3 \text{ Police}}{417}$ dated 17th June 1895, I have the honour to state that with the exception of the Cantonment at Wellington none of the Cantonments in this Presidency make any contributions towards the cost of the Cantonment Police. Vide Government Order N^o 1202 dated 29th November 93 Financial Department.

Under Government Order N^o 182 dated 2nd March 94 Financial Department, a contribution at the rate of Rs 30/- per mensem was recovered from the Cantonment at Wellington towards the maintenance of the Police during the year 1893-94 -

against against Rs 143 the total per mensem of the pay of the men. For the year 1894-95 no recovery was effected, as the Cantonment Fund was not in a position to defray any portion of the cost vide Government Order N^o 1573 dated 16 March 95, Military Department. For the current year a contribution at the rate of Rs 30/- per mensem will be recovered under the Government Order of 2nd March 94 above referred to.

Nothing in the shape of superannuation charge is recovered from any Cantonment Fund in this Presidency.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Lucas's letter dated 17th June last, No 3 Police 417 requesting information as to the practice in this Presy: in the matter of the levy of the superannuation charge of three annas per mensem admissible on account of each Police constable employed in a cantonment.

2. In reply I am to state that none of the cantonments in this Presy: are in a position to pay any portion of the cost of the Police except that at Wellington the funds of which are extremely limited. As a consequence no contribution on account of superannuation charges has ever been lived from cautionment fund in this Presy.
