met.

To,

His Excellency the Governor in Council,
Fort St. George, Madras.

THE humble memorial of PUTHENKOTIL
THITHIKUTTY OOMMAH, wife of KALATHIL
OONNIEN HAJEE of Thatchinganad
deshom, Nenmini amshom, Walluvanad Taluk.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,

That memorialist, with profound respect and great pain of mind, begs to lay before Your Excellency in Council the fact that in 1894 her husband, Oonien Hajee, was summoned before the Collector of Malabar, and was said to have been committed to Madras jail and from thence removed to Bagulpore in the Bengal Presidency, as he was suspected of having had something to do with the late Mopla out-break.

2. That memorialist's husband has never taken any part in any of the out-breaks nor did he know anything about the late one. That he has all along been leading an honorable life and he was very loyal to Government. That there are several records to show that memorialist's husband, Oonien Hajee, was innocent in the affair and the persons named *hereunder will, if examined, prove his innocence and good conduct.

- *1. Mr. W. Logan, late Collector of Malabar.
- 2. Mankada Kovilagam Kunjunni Thampuran Avl.
- 3. Karukamannil Neelakantan Moosad.
- 4. Poondanath Sankaran Nambudri.
- 5. Kypalli Nambudri.
- 6. Valiya Jarathingal Imbichi Koya Tangal.
- 7. Valiya Tangaleketh Syed Ahamed Kunhi Tangal.

3. That Oonien Hajee was an Adigary for nearly 20 years and as such did efficient service to Government in several out-breaks and in approbation of such services he was awarded presents and certificate of Honor. That his (Oonien Hajee's) father was also Adigary for about 25 years and had served Government faithfully; that when Mr. Conolly, the late Collector, was murdered, some of the prisoners were arrested by him (Oonien Hajee's father) and in recognition of his valuable services he was presented with gun, sword &c., by Government. That he was one liked both by his superiors and by the public in general.

4. That from the report made by Chekkutty, the Police Inspector, long before the out-break, and from other circumstances and records of the case it will be found that Oonnien Hajee was innocent in the matter and that he was more a victim than a culprit to the malicious accusation-the outcome of a long standing hatred between him and his enemies-which was readily believed by the authorities.

5. That memorialist is a young woman belonging to a respectable family, and the separation of her husband from her has made her very miserable in her younger days, in as much as she cannot enjoy the fruits of matrimony. That although her husband is living, yet she is translated into a widow as she is not allowed under the governing law, to be near her living husband, and she is equally shut out of a second marriage under the divine law of her religion. That in case death overtakes her old and heart-broken husband in his exiled condition, memorialist will not be able either to have a last sight of her dying husband or to do any conventional ceremonies for him. That this thought alone has become a tormenting and never-ending grief to her.

6. That taking advantage of Oonnien Hajee's absence in difficulties, several suits are brought on him and there is no one to oppose those frivolous litigations. That memorialist has only a female child of 5 years of age by Oonnien Hajee. That if his properties were to be lost in litigation or otherwise without any one to uphold his cause, memorialist and her child will be entirely ruined.

7. That because memorialist could not know what are the offences with which Oonnien Hajee is charged, she is unable to adduce any evidence now. That if she is allowed a copy of such charge made by the Collector, she is ready to submit a statement of evidence. She prays Your Excellency will be mercifully pleased to order an enquiry into the matter and the above named individuals examined.

8. Under these circumstances memorialist most respectfully and humbly prays Your Excellency in Council will be generously pleased to take a benign view of Oonnien Hajee's past conduct, his old age and debilitated condition, and the fact of his ancestors having served Government so faithfully for such a length of time and especially at the time of emergency, and to mercifully order his restoration to freedom.

For which act of kindness and gracious justice memorialist shall as in duty bound.

Ever Pray,

26th August 1895.

P. THITHIKUTTI UMMAH.
