READ—the following papers:—

From G. T. MACKENZIE, Esq., District Judge, Górávari, to the Chief Secretary to Government (through the Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras), dated Rajahmundry, 23rd July 1895, No. 953.

I have the honour to state that I received yesterday G.O., No. 486, dated 22nd April 1895, communicating Public Works G.O., dated 28th March 1895, ordering me at once to clear from the District Munsif's court compound at Amalápuram the objectionable trees and unsightly shed which have been placed there.

2. The compound was handed over by the Public Works Department on 7th November 1892. It then contained fruit trees as per margin and since then no other trees have been planted; but in February 1894, with the sanction of 24 coccanut.	1 neredu.

5 palmyra.	2 guava.
3 mango.	2 custard apple.

Mr. Ross, District Judge, the compound was leased for five years at Rs. 42 per annum and there are now 34 plantain trees.

3. The shed is not a cattle shed as Government seems to suppose, but a water pandal erected by the local union and maintained by local funds for the convenience of the public who attend the court.

4. When the Executive Engineer wrote to me in December, I attended to his representations, but as the contract is for a term of years and the water pandal is a public benefit, I decided not to interfere, and I told him so.

5. In obedience to the Government Order now received, I shall move the water pandal out of the compound, but the contractor cannot be ejected until 1899, as he holds a lease.

No. 2077.

Forwarded to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George.

Ag. Under Secretary.

ORDER—dated 5th September 1895, No. 2198 W., Public Works.

His Excellency the Governor in Council observes that it is a highly irregular proceeding to lease the compound of a public building to a private party, and although Mr. Mackenzie states that no trees have been planted since 1892, it is clear that the 34 plantain trees mentioned in his letter have been planted since then.

2. The District Judge will be called on to report the terms of the lease, and whether it can be cancelled. If this can be done on the payment of a moderate compensation it should be so arranged. It will be considered hereafter whether Mr. Ross should not be called on to defray the charges incurred.

3. Mr. Mackenzie has misunderstood the statement as regards the sheds. There is a "shed" in the compound of the new court-house which is used as a water pandal, and there is a cattle-shed in the old court-house building. For the latter the Postal department is responsible.
