The pet^r states as follows:-

Sometime ago the pet^r's husband who resides at Madura executed a bond in her favour promising to maintain and protect her. Having failed to fulfil his promise the pet^r laid suits in forma pauperis in the courts of the Dist.
Municipal of Madura & Tirumangalam and obtained decisions favourable to her -self. These decisions were however quashed by the Sub. Judge of Madurai (W.D.).
The pet^r thereupon appealed to the High Court through Mr A.B. Srinivasa Aiyangar Esq.
-Kil. But as this pleader made consi-derable delay in presenting the appeal she had to engage another who says that the suit is barred by limitation.

The pet^r submits that her suit is not time barred and that the High Court's order No 7233 of '94 issued to her states that her appeal was presented in time, that it was admitted on the 6th October last that she may ~~appeal~~ present herself as therefore due to fraudulent mo. twice on the part of the Bankers which he pet. prays that Gov^t will be pleased to take notice of.

The pet^r is a pauper. She prays that this petition may be forwarded to the High Court with an order that justice may be done to her in the matter of her pauper appeal.
