Sir,

In Sessions case no: 19 of 93 of North Arcot, one Audiappa Naidu and others were convicted of having fabricated a Salo deed conveying the lands of one Kuppammaul to the said Audiappa Naidu and of getting it registered in the Arkonam Sub Registrar's office through the personation of Kuppammaul by a prostitute named Pattu of Conjeevaram. Kuppammaul, on the 20th July 1894, accused before the Head Quarter Deputy Magistrate, North Arcot, one Kanniappa Reddi of Kilaudur, Arkonam Division, of having given false evidence for the defence in the Sessions. A Summons to him issued on the 8th August 1894 for appearance on the 21st idem. The Summons was returned unserved and the Police reported that the accused was absconding.

Thereon, the Deputy Magistrate issued warrants on two occasions, one on the 24th idem and another on the 10th September for the arrest of the accused. The Station House officer of Arkonam having reported that the accused could not be found, a proclamation under Section 84 C.C.P. calling on the accused to appear before him within 30 days, was issued by the Deputy Magistrate on the 30th September. As the accused did not appear, his property consisting of a hut worth Rs 20 and lands noted in the margin was attached under Section 88 C.C.P. on the 5th December 1894. Although more than six months have elapsed since the date of attachment, the accused has not put in his appearance. I have the honour therefore to request that the Government will be pleased to sanction the sale of the attached property.

I have the honour to be
