I

His Excellency the Governor General in Council, Calcutta.

The humble petition of appeal for mercy from Council No. 222, Velousi raik, now confined in the District Jail Madras, under the sentence of death passed by the Session Judge Madras in Calcutta Case No. 37 of 1890 and confirmed in the Appeals to the High Court and the Madras Government.

Sheweth,

That Subba Raik was ap-
-ing the news of killing the petitioner by cutting his throat. That the petitioner went and informed the Village Munsiff of the matter, as he was unaware that it could be brought to the notice of the Circar. That the Village Munsiff did not either direct the petitioner to go to the Circar or enquire into and dispose of the matter as all country people do but kept quiet siding his cousin-law (the deceased).

by the pain of the blow he then received cut Sukha Saiken with the bill-hook, which was on his hand.
 That the petitioner did not do this wilfully. That the High Court and the Madras Government have confirmed the death sentence. That at last the ^{hon} petitioners beseeches the noble Government of India to be gracious enough to grant him pardon.
