Date of admission into Hosp. - 23rd June 1894.

Month & date.

Particulars of case, treatment & diet.

23rd June. 1894

This convict was sent to Jail for safe custody by Station House officer of Ongole, On 23rd June 1894. On enquiry from him, he states he is a habitual ganja smoker and was taken into custody by the Police while under the influence of ganja. On admission. He is a thin tall man, of a drowsy appearance. His eyes were blood-shot, he had a vacant or staring appearance on the whole he had the appearance of being under the influence of some intoxicant. He was placed under observation, and watched by 2 orderlies day and night. His general health is fair.

24th June -

The convict passed a fair night somewhat restless, but quiet and manageable, is given to talking a great deal, also at times is lacrimose. The following medicine is ordered.

Rp: sp: ammon: aromat: m 20
aq: menth: Pep: 3 i 10r

25th June -

Remains the same, somewhat more restless, appetite good. Does not refuse food, is quiet and cleanly in his habits.

29th June -

This man has much improved, is now reasonable, and quiet and behaves generally in a more sane manner, asks to be allowed to work with other convicts and to be allowed to go home, as there is nothing the matter with him and that all his misfortune is due to his having smoked ganja which he promises he will never smoke again if he is only allowed out.

7th July -

This man's improvement has steadily progressed, he is now quiet and reasonable, his general health has improved, takes his food well, and the general report concerning his behaviour is good.

10th July -

As this convict is behaving well and is generally quickly quietly disposed, I have ordered him to be released from strict observation night and day, and only to be generally watched.

There is nothing fresh to note. His improvement has steadily continued. 25th July. 1894.

Remains the same. 10th August

The convict appears to have quite recovered, is now very quiet and his general health is good. Appetite good - sleeps well - a letter was written on the 12th July 1894 asking for orders and again a reminder sent this day. 11th September

Letter dated 5.10.94 sent to Joint Magistrate Nellore, stating that prisoner has recovered and is capable of standing his trial. 5th October 1894.

This man remains in the same state and is quiet and rational. general health fairly good. cleanly and obedient to orders and discipline. 12th October 1894.

Letter forwarded to the District Magistrate with G.O. sanctioning this man's removal to Asylum with Jy. Prison's remarks thereon. 13th October 1894.

Discharged from Jail this day - to undergo his trial at Ongole. 26th October 1894.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS,
Dated 18 January 1895.

No. 984

From
A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A.,
INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS, Prisons.

To
THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.

SIR,

In reply to G.O. 22nd December 1894 No. 3188, I have the honour to state that the Lunatic in question is not in the District Jail, Nellore. As there has been a change in the office of Superintendent and Medical Officer of this Jail, the present Superintendent and Medical Officer is unable to give any opinion regarding the lunatic, whom he has never seen. An extract from the Case-book regarding the Lunatic is enclosed. From this it will be seen that from first admission he was quiet and manageable. His attack was attributed to ganja.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Sd/- A. G. Cardew
Inspector-General of Jails.
