Police.

Approving the proposals of the Inspector-General of Police to abolish the Kallur division in Kurnool district and to appoint a court and school inspector for the district.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From M. HAMMICK, Esq., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Masulipatam, 19th August 1895, No. 4648.

I have the honour to request that Government may be moved to sanction the proposals set out below with a view to grant to Kurnool the advantage of a court and school inspector.

2. In Colonel Porteous' letter read in G.O., No. 329, dated 11th February 1893, he set out in full the advantage of an efficient court and school inspector, and the Government in the order stated that it would be ready to consider any proposals that might be made later on.

3. My present proposals, which have been drawn up by the Superintendent and supported by the Deputy Inspector-General, involve no increased expenditure, and I believe their adoption will improve the efficiency of the force in the district. The importance especially of an efficient school instructor is very great in Kurnool, where so many of the constables are of low educational qualification. I deferred submitting Mr. Prendergast's proposals until I had visited the district and seen matters for myself, which I have now done.

4. A reference to the map of the Kurnool district in the manual, where the stations are clearly marked, will make the following proposals easily intelligible. They affect the following four divisions:—

Division.	Present stations.	Proposed stations.
Kurnool Town		Kurnool town. Tekur. Nurnur. Kallur.
Kallur		Abolished.
Pattikonda		Pattikonda. Maddikera. Pandicona. Billaical. Devunkonda. Tugali. Kuppatral.
Kodamur		Kodamur. Gonagondla. Kera Bellagal. Turnical. (Transferred.) Gudur. Kothakota. Nagalapur.
Pyápali		Pyápali. Yenigamarri. Jaladrug. Katarkonda. Neredicherla. Jonnagiri.

The proposal is to abolish the Kallur division and distribute the stations as shown above.

5. Kallur division, which it is proposed to abolish, is part of the Ramalakota taluk and Kallur, its head-quarters, is quite close to Kurnool town. The Kurnool Town Inspector will be perfectly able to supervise the work of the town and the three stations proposed to be added to the town. Tekur and Nagalapur are both very light stations within ten miles of Kurnool and can easily be supervised from the head-quarters. In Cuddapah, Bezwada, Guntur, Cuddalore and other places a similar arrangement exists.

6. The re-arrangement of the other divisions will render them well within an Inspector's powers of supervision and I do not apprehend that any evil results will follow.

7. If the Government will sanction the proposals now made, I believe the efficiency of the Kurnool force will be improved.

From C. M. MULLALY, Esq., District Magistrate of Kurnool, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Kurnool, 12th September 1895, Dis. No. 750-Magl.

In returning herewith letter No. 4648 of 19th August 1895, of the Inspector-General of Police forwarded to me for remarks with endorsement of Government No. 2058, dated 4th September 1895, I have the honour to state that I consider Mr. Hammick's proposal to abolish Kallur division and to appoint instead a court and school inspector a very good one.

2. The redistribution of stations will render the new divisions well within an inspector's power of supervision.

ORDER—No. 2034, Judicial, dated 1st October 1895.

The Inspector-General's proposals are approved.

SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honor to request that Government may be moved to sanction the proposals set out below, with a view to grant to Kuracool
the advantage of a Court and School Inspector.
2. In Colonel Porteous' letter, read in G.O.
"February 1893, No 329, he set out in full the advantage of an efficient Court and School Inspector and the Government in the order stated that it would be ready
