Sir,

In continuation of my letter

(No 495) camp no 157 I have the honor to 17.9.95

request that I may be allowed to employ a local Vakil to instruct the Government Pleader in the appeal which has, I understand been presented to the High Court against the decision of the sessions court of Immenelly in sessions case 41 (the case brought against 1895
the Shamans of Kalingumalai for the murder of the Ettayapuram manager and other offences). A copy of the judgment is enclosed for reference and favor of return. The case is a complicated one on account of the large mass of evidence recorded, and the Government Pleader well, I consider, find it advantageous to have at hand some one who is intimately acquainted with the facts. If the prosecution is approved I will send to Madras the Vakil who conducted the prosecution in the preliminary enquiry before the Joint Magistrate.

The local Public Prosecutor cannot conveniently be spared for the work.

I have the honor to be
