READ—again the following papers:—

G.O., Mis. No. 123, Judicial, dated 18th January 1895.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to certain officers, for early report, letter from the Government of India forwarding a statement of male and female lunatics at Singapore, and requesting that inquiries may be made to ascertain if there are any friends or relatives to maintain them.

G.O., Mis. Nos. 1419, 1420, Judicial, dated 6th July 1895.

ABSTRACT.—Informing the Government of India that of the twenty-six Singapore lunatics named in the list forwarded by it, the relatives of eight individuals are willing to maintain them, and expressing inability to consent to the proposed transfer of the lunatics to the Asylums in this Presidency, unless the Government of the Straits Settlements is prepared to pay their maintenance charges.

G.O., No. 1645, Judicial, dated 7th August 1895.

G.O., Mis. No. 1802, Judicial, dated 29th August 1895.

Read—the following letter from J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 12th August 1895, No. 562:—

In reply to your letter, No. 1420, dated 6th July 1895, I am directed to state that the Colonial Secretary, Singapore, has been addressed with a view to the transfer to the Madras Presidency of the seven lunatics whose relatives are willing and able to maintain them. He has also been requested to intimate the probable date of the arrival of the lunatics in this country, and this information will be communicated to you when received, in order to admit of the necessary steps being taken by the local authorities to carry out the provisions of section 4 of the Lunatic Asylums Act (XXXVI of 1858).

2. With reference to paragraph 4 of your letter, I am to state that the Government of India do not anticipate that any difficulty will arise with the Government of the Straits Settlements in connection with the cost of the passages of the lunatics to Madras, but I am to point out that it will rest with the Government of Madras, after compliance with the requirements of the Act, to arrange for the conveyance of the lunatics to their friends and relatives.

3. I am to add that the Government of India will await the further information promised in paragraph 2 of your letter.

Order—Mis. No. 1802, Judicial, dated 29th August 1895.

Recorded.
