CHIEF OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,
Calicut, Madras, 17th September 1895.

FROM

M. HAMMICK, Esq., I.C.S.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

Madras,

To

THE Chief Secretary

Cotacmand.

SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honor to submit an appeal petition from one Abdulla Khan, late 3<sup>d</sup> Grade Head Constable 846, Mellore, who was dismissed from the Police Service having been found guilty of having negligently suffered a prisoner to escape.

2. The appellant and a second constable were given charge of two prisoners at Rajampet in Cuddapah with orders to convey them to Althakur in Mellore. The appellant, instead of procuring food for the accused and giving it to them in the lock-up, permitted the prisoner to go into the bazaar to a private house for meals. While there one of the accused who was in the appellant's own charge bolted and apparently jumped down a well
 whe

where his body was afterwards found.

The appellant was convicted under section 223 and fined Rs 50, the magistrate remarking that he gave a fine only as he doubts the man would lose his appointment. The conviction was upheld on appeal.

3. The case was one of gross negligence. The appellant should first never have allowed the man to go into the bazaar for a meal, and when he did take the man into a private house he should <sup>not</sup> have allowed the man to go out of the house except under his immediate charge. He showed throughout that he was not to be trusted and his conduct was the more disgraceful as he was the senior constable in charge. These escapes have been far too common, and there is always a suspicion of something more than mere negligence in the matter. I do not consider that in this case anything less than dismissal would meet the case and I have no recommendation to offer on the appellant's behalf.

5. I submit all the records in the case.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
M. M. M. M.
Inspector General of Police.
