Rajahmundry Central
Jail from 6th May to 14th August 1894, the period he was under suspension.*

TO BE RETURNED WITH REPLY.

The Superintendent, Central Jail, Rajahmundry.

Hospital assistant N. Panchanatham Pillai who did duty for sometime in this Jail during Hospital assistant G. Muthiyalu Naidu's suspension was sent to this District for duty, from Madras; and as there was the necessity of another Hospital assistant at this Jail he was directed, with the Surgeon-General's consent, to do duty at the Jail, so that his first appointment to this District was at the Jail.

2. Hospital assistant N. Panchanatham Pillai has then, no permanent appointment in this District, and even if he had, the District Board or Municipalities would not sanction his pay while he was on other duty.

3. In my opinion, the Jail has to meet the pay of both Hospital assistants N. Panchanatham Pillai and G. Muthiyalu Naidu, as it was on account of the Jail that their services were utilized and non-utilized.

In my letter N^o C/1264 dated 18th September 1894, application was made for sanction to the disbursement of Rs 32.14.5, being the jail charge allowance payable to Hospital assistant Muthiyalu Naidu for the period of his suspension and this was sanctioned in G.O. 28th September 1894, N^o 2366. The Accountant-General has, however, ^{now} taken objection to the pay of the Hospital assistant for the same period and requires the sanction of Government to its disbursement, on the ground that another Hospital Assistant did duty at the Rajahrundry Central Jail and drew pay, as well as charge allowance, while Muthiyalu Naidu was suspended. It was supposed that this additional Hospital assistant, whose appointment appointment to the Jail was made by the District Medical Officer, was a supernumerary in the District, and that his pay would not be a Jail charge, but in Letter No. 93 dated 16th December 1894, of which copy is enclosed, the Medical Officer reports that this was not so. In these circumstances, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to accord its sanction to the disbursement of the sum of Rs 180-15-6 being the amount of pay due to Muthiyalu Naidu from 6th May to 14th August 1894, the period he was under suspension.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. J. Curdew
Inspector General of Prisons.

CURRENT No 365

FORT ST. GEORGE,

Accountant-General's Office,

28th January 1895.

No. 170

From

T. W. Rawlins Esquire,

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department.

SIR,

With reference to Government endorsement N^o 42 dated 11th of January 1895 on * herewith returned letter from the Inspector General of Prisons N^o 29 dated 3rd idem, requesting the sanction of Government to the disbursement of pay to Hospital Assistant Muthiyalu Ravidu for the period of his suspension, I have the honor to report that the pay drawn for the Hospital Assistant was objected to by this office because, though the Inspector General had obtained sanction for the Hospital Assistant's charge allowance, he had had not done so for his pay, and it was not understood whether this would not involve extra charge to the state. The Inspector General appears to have applied for sanction in the present case on the report of the Medical Officer in charge of the Central Jail, Rajahmundry. Now, on a reference, the Surgeon General states that no medical subordinate was temporarily entertained in his department in the arrangement, and that there was no extra cost to Government. In these circumstances, sanction of Government is not necessary, and the pay objected to by this office will be admitted.

I have the honor to be,
 Sir
 Your most obed^t. Servant,

 Accountant General.
