 District Magistrate

To,

The Chief Secretary to Govt.
 Judicial Dept.

Sir,

I have the honour to report that in November last a Hindu girl named Elankali, aged 14 years, was brought from Madras by a Mappila to Iruvanganadi where she was employed as a maid servant in a mappila house and treated as a female. The Police treated the Case as one of Kidnapping and produced the girl before the Magistrate.
 In consideration of the danger attending the detention of a Mappila convert in a mappila town like Iruvanganadi, the girl was immediately brought to Calicut, where she was placed in charge

charge of the Sexton of the Roman Catholic Church. In the mean time the matter was communicated to the Commissioner of Police, Madras, who intimated that the girl was taken to Tiruvangadi with the consent of her guardian. But as the girl was willing to return to Madras and unwilling to profess the Muhammadan religion, she was sent back to Madras.

2. Expenses as detailed in the margin have been incurred on account of the girl during her stay at Calicut and for her removal to Madras. As the charges were debited to the maintenance of strangers and indigent persons the Accountant General has admitted only a batta of annas two per drem, the Railway fare from Calicut to Madras and the handy hire to the Commissioner's office amounting in all to Rs 7-3-0. I therefore request that the excess expenditure

1. Acting charges for 16 days at Rs 4-0-0 per diem Rs 4-0-0
2. oil for lighting purposes Rs 1-0-0
3. Railway fare from Calicut to Madras Rs 4-13-0
4. Jukka hire to Police Commissioner's Office Rs 4-0-0
5. Food expense during journey Rs 4-0-0

your most Obedient Servant
