Camp Dated Tiruvanga d/27 September 1895.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that the Subregistrars' offices at Pullambadi and Appiliyapuram in the Trichinopoly district, opened from the 1st April 1894 under the sanction conveyed in G.O. d/20 February 1894, No. 432, Judicial, are held in rented private buildings, which are ill-ventilated, insanitary and quite unsuited to the requirements of the offices. In these rural stations, it is not possible to secure suitable private buildings for rent. The two offices have fairly progressed during the past year and may be considered as successful. The offices show a surplus of receipts over expenditure as will be seen from the following.

following:-

Year	Office	Registration	Receipts	Expendi- ture	Surplus
1894-95	Pullambadi	1914	Rs 1924	Rs 1451	Rs 473
"	Uppiliapuram	1872	2103	1467	636

I In these circumstances, I have the honor to request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the construction of office buildings for the Subregisars of Pullambadi and Uppiliapuram in the Trichinopoly District on the terrace design for smaller offices approved in G.O. dt 21 July 1888 No. 230 W.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
