been dispirited without many, when there is none to pay of high & valuable in the cases to succeed in their attempts, and many poor people have been committed under the Criminal branch of trust and they are being punished with fine & unjust decision of the Court, and in defiance of the fine the Court cry matter no Court take notice of the poor people in the Court, and And therefore I have to trouble your in the matter or to send an special order to the Court of this place for final enquiry under the case instead of doing so.

of this matter to your notice, it is an endorsement of the Court, stating that I must come in the proper slips under Par. 7 of jurisdiction where as I have accordingly, as per your honor's order, and filed the case in the Court. When the Court without taking notice of my case will pass an order that my case is under Section 499. 203. & 211. It is an Court and also the dependents & clerks joining me each other make the decision, & to pass an order as per above decision said, an which account an petition to the Court for

And this records which I have enclosed & send with this petition, it is an for your information of the unjust decision made by the Court, & records which were very unjustly rendered by the Court, would be end gradually, and for the present it is my hand to me, & there is no more for me to end spending the postage charge, as I am very poor & I am living without money, & all the houses & property has gone through the hands of this place. Most respectfully by are all joining me to monitor me, and they say that your honor will be good to to take all the information from me
