To His Excellency the Right Honorable
 Beilby Bacon Lord Wenlock G.C.B.

Governor of Madras

The humble petition of Mathiakathoo Saswaran Nair, yaka
 Ansam. Palghat, Taluk South Malabar

Most respectfully sheweth

That in reply to a petition submitted to your Excellency dated 2nd May 1893, your Excellency was pleased to send him an Endorsement n^o 1042 of 18th May 1893 to the effect, that your Excellency would not interfere in the appointment of subordinate officers, and that such matters should be referred to the Departmental Head office for disposal.

That in compliance with the spirit of the said Endorsement, Petitioner submitted a petition to the High Court of Madras on the 11th July 1894, and that in reply a formal Endorsement n^o 2252
 was received stating that the petition was simply recorded.

That dissatisfied with the

the terms of that Endorsement as not deciding one way or the other the grievance of the Petitioner submitted for disposal.

Petitioner again submitted a petition to the said High Court on the 6th Dec 1894, which brought down an Endorsement to the effect that they would not interfere in the Petitioner's case.

4). That of course, Petitioner has no cause of complaint against that August Tribunal, and that he should only blame his stars, if his repeated request and prayers from 1884 up to date had not had the desired effect.

5). That the prayer of the Petitioner all along has been to get himself reinstated as a Gumasta or Amra in any of the civil Courts of Malabar, or if that is not feasible, to be allowed to practice as a Vakil in any of the Munsiff's Court Vaitori and Judalur. in by mand, which places being feverish and unhealthy have no attraction for licensed practitioners, and where the profession is entirely monopolised by unpassed men.

That in conclusion if your Excellency is of opinion that your Excellency would not interfere in ⁱⁿ ~~Sept~~ ⁱⁿ matters, and if the High Court, the highest Authority for such matters would either not heed, or sometimes decline to answer Petitioner's long standing prayers.

Petitioner is at a loss, where else to look for support and redress. Petitioner is the descendant of a respectable Parawad and encumbered into a large family and owing to poverty being unable to prosecute his studies and pass the required test.

He humbly turns once more to your Honor Excellency and prays that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to read his petition to your Excellency of 8th May 1895, to call for all the petitions he had hitherto submitted to the High Court and to

to effectually grant a final redress of all the grievances he is suffering under.

The Petitioner humbly begs to remain
Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant.
