Madras.

Sir,

One J. R. Raperatna Subbaram of Madras Charges one Appa Pillai-alla. md. dmi of Adoni (Bellary) with the offence of Criminal Breach of Trust in respect of 9536 sheep skins valued at Rupees 7175 and the Case is now pending before the Magistrate of Adoni.

2 — The skins were sold by Allah-ud-din to one Kntb. uddin who sent them in two consignments of 22 bales and 5 bales respectively to the address of one Chinna Abrahm Quadin of Madras.

3 — The Second Consignment of 5 bales was seized by the Police at the Calicutam on 3rd Instant and on the following day 7 bales of the first Consignment were found in the possession of Chinna Abon Quadri and were also seized.

4 — Chinna Abon Quadri admits that he sold the remaining 15 bales of the first Consignment of skins on 22nd September to one Vallakkoo Ibrahim Kakka, Angappa Naik Street, Madras, whose accounts show that he purchased 5396 sheep skins on the above date from Chinna Abon Quadri.

5 — V. Ibrahim Kakka states that he opened the bales, sorted the skins and repacked them in 8 bales which were on 24th September through the agency of the South Indian Trading Company shipped per S.S. "Clan Maclean" to the address of Messrs. De Clermont and Gormer. The bales are numbered from 297 to 304 and each bears the mark

V.M.E.

6 — The Complainant asks me to send a telegram at his expense demanding the seizure of these skins on arrival of S.S. "Clan Maclean" in London. I have advised him to apply to the Magistrate before whom the case is pending who appears to me to be the proper person to make an order or to apply to Government to take steps for the seizure of the property.

7 — The S.S. "Clan Maclean" left Madras on 29th September and is not likely to reach London before 29th October at the earliest, but there is not very much time to spare.

I have the honour to be
Sir

Yours most Obedient Servant
