High Court of Judicature,
Madras, 6th November 1895.

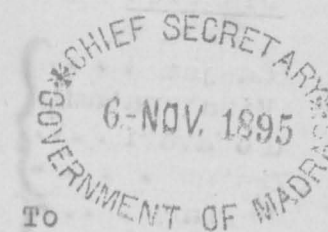

From

D.W.G. Cowie, Esquire,

Acting Registrar of the

High Court of Judicature,

Appellate Side, Madras.

To

The Honorable Mr. J.F. Price, C.S.I., I.C.S.,

Chief Secretary to Government,

Fort Saint George.

Honourable Sir,

With reference to G.O., No. 8179, Judicial, dated 22nd December 1894, I am directed to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government under section 37 of the Legal Practitioners Act to the permanent reduction of the number of centres of the Pleaders Examination to the number sanctioned by that G.O. in the case of the last Examination.

2. Seven was the number of centres originally fixed in the Rules for the conduct of the Examination and this number was gradually raised to eleven.
3. Owing however to the operation of the new Rules debarring Matriculates from appearing for the Second Grade and First in Arts men from appearing for the First Grade, there was a sudden fall in the number of candidates from 775 in 1894 to 113 in 1895 and in consequence of this, the Secretary, with the permission of the Legal Practitioners Examination Board, applied for

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted. The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes. (G. O. 8th April 1893, No. 289, Public.)

for the sanction of Government to a reduction of the number of Examination centres from 11 to 5. The Government in the G.O. above quoted reduced it to 6 for the Examination held in February last.

4. The Examination Board ^{now} considers that there is no prospect of any considerable increase in the number of candidates at the ensuing or at any future examination and have suggested to the High Court that the number of centres may be permanently reduced to 6 as shewn in the margin.

5. The Honorable the Judges are of opinion that this proposal, if carried into effect, will facilitate the conduct of the Examination, without at the same time affording occasion for serious complaint on the part of the Examinees, and will result in a considerable saving to Government.

6. I am to point out that, should this proposal be approved, it will be necessary to amend Regulations I&II of the Regulations printed in G.O., dated 1st April 1882, No. 283, Judicial, and to request that as the 15th Instant has been fixed as the last day for receipt of applications for admission to the Examination, the orders of Government may be obtained at an early date.

I have the honour to be,
Honourable Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sw. Comis
Acting Registrar.
