For order.
Please see R.O. 24-9-95
The memo is submitted for perusal
+ orders. The M.R.C. is unwilling to contribute towards the cost of the Police force employed solely in the interests of "Law and order"; this indefinitely stated a para. of the memo.
25-10-95

If the Railway does not pay the guarantee
Govt. has to make up the fine per cent.
I believe as a matter of fact that the Company ^{must} pay 5 p.c.
If this is so the extra charge which would be incurred for the Railway Police ~~contract~~ would in all probability be met full on Govt. The only difference would be that instead of Government paying Imperial would be 31/10/95

The result is that Govt. (Prov.)
must pay - we cannot in any
to the public, abandon our Railway Police scheme because the M.R.C.
won't contribute
