Judl. DEPARTMENT

C. No. 3719 & 4851/95.

FOR ORDERS.

In the first of the foregoing papers the Dm. of N. Arcot requested the extension of the Madras Towns Nuisances Act, II of 1889, to Kaveripak, Perumbak & Kaverinagar which were constituted as unions ^{Subsequent to} 1st July 1891, when the Act was ^{first} brought into force in the dist.

On a reference made thereupon, the Govt.
states in the second current, that none of the unions are within 5 miles of a Magistrate's Court, as required by G.O. 230 of 10 Febry. 1890; that an exception to the rule might be made in the case of Kaveripak which is within 7 miles of Wallaja, the H.Q. of the Stationary Magistrate; & that arrangements cannot conveniently be made for the early trial of cases in the other unions.

There are neither maps of these places, nor Sub-Registrars who may apply to the Govt. for orders as to whether an exception may be made in the case of Kaveripak?
The Dm. informed that Govt. is not prepared to depart from the accepted principle?

The O.M. gives no reason at all for any such departure, & Govt. has more than once declined to make these exceptions. — please see G.O. 93 11.5.91 & 420 4.2.92 for instance.

W. A. G. S.

I submit that the Rule should be adhered to. There is no sufficient reason in any of these cases why it should not.
