The Honorable J. F. Price,

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Judicial DEPARTMENT,
MADRAS.

SIR,

Referring to G. O. No. 2504 dated 16th October 1894, I have the honor to report that the Battle Pass Act of 1871 is already in force in the Agency tracts of this District and several pounds have been established in the Agency villages. Under Section 6 of the Act the village heads are ex-officio keepers of the pounds in their villages. The pound keepers have to maintain several registers and submit accounts to the Taluk officers every month. In the Agency tracts, the village heads are generally too illiterate to keep the registers and prepare the monthly accounts. Much difficulty is therefore experienced in these tracts especially in the Special Assistant Agents Division in securing proper accounts of receipts and charges. The other Divisions have comparatively small areas of Agency and the present system in force there need not be disturbed. I am therefore of opinion that in the Special Assistant Agents Division

Division alone where the heads of villages having cattle pounds are illiterate, Station House officers may be appointed as pound keepers wherever there is a Police station. The Inspector General of Police also seems to be in favour of the proposal.

2. With regards to the remuneration to Station & House officers placed in charge of pounds, I entirely concur in the remarks made by Government in para 2 of its order. A fixed pay of Rs 3 per mensem will I think be quite sufficient.

3. The enclosures of the G. O. under reply are herewith returned.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant,
B. J. Ainsworth
for the collector.

SIR,

Enclosures

With reference to G.O. No 2504 dated 16th October 1894, I have the honor to state that the suggestion of Government that Station House Officers in Agency Tracts if appointed pound keepers, should receive a fixed salary is preferable to granting them a percentage on collections from fees. As the work is comparatively light I would suggest Rs 2 per mensem as sufficient remuneration.

It will be seen that the Agent practically ignores the legal difficulty, as long as s6 of Act. I of 1891 is in force, it is illegal to appoint station house officers to be pound keepers in villages where there are headmen. It is not worth while legislating about the matter, so presumably there is no thing for it but to sanction the appointment as pound keepers of P.S.O.'s in villages where there are no headmen. The remuneration suggested by Col. Porteus (Rs 2 per mensem) may perhaps be approved

If Govt. decides to adhere to the law which is suggested above is the only course to follow. No one in the Agency is however likely to question the legality of appointing P.S.O.'s as pound keepers if Govt. Secretary looks up. The sanctioning I heard of village are manifestly incapable of performing the duties of the office

25/1/95

Where there are no heads of villages, any one may be appointed pound keeper, I suppose. When there are no heads of villages, the legal difficulty may, I should say, be overcome by appointing P.S.O.'s as pound keepers. But after all it doesn't much matter. As the C. Secy. says, no one in the Agency is likely to raise any question. Sanction the proposal & let the pay be Rs 2 p. m.
