Note. The order passed by the local Govt has not been furnished. MR

The peti states that one Periyannan manigaran an influential cowillaya of his village stole the paddy from his wet patta lands in his village. The Police Superintendent being petitioned transferred the case for enquiry to the Station Officer of Sattira patti who however never held any enquiry. The peti thereupon preferred a complaint in the Court of the Sub-Magistr of Madura who dismissed it without fully examining the records in the case and the witnesses. The Dt Magistr on appeal dismissed the case in the same way without giving any notice to the peti. The peti prays that the case in question may be remanded for re trial by any Magistr other than those mentioned above.

Note this man has already come to Govt on 19/11/95
