REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 2nd October 1895, Mis. No. 4918 :—

Read—the following letter from A. C. TATE, Esq., Acting Collector of Anantapur, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, dated 20th September 1895, Cur. No. 2490 :—

I have the honour to state that a number of curnams of Tadpatri taluk have sent up to me a joint memorial in triplicate (one copy addressed to Government, one to the Board and one to Collector), asking for increase of pay, for travelling allowance and batta, a better supply of stationery, and making other similar requests.

2. I have returned these papers to the memorialists as contravening rule 70, &c., of the " Rules regulating the personal conduct of public servants."

3. These village officers are " public servants" as defined in the Indian Penal Code and are also " officers employed under the Government of Madras" and the rules therefore categorically apply to them. But as it is evident, from a perusal of the " Rules regulating the personal conduct of public servants," that some of them do and some of them do not apply to village officers, I have the honour to enquire whether my interpretation of rule 70, &c., is correct, or whether these memorials should be recalled and considered.

Resolution—dated 2nd October 1895, Mis. No. 4918.

The Board is of opinion that the rules regulating the personal conduct of public servants are not applicable to village officers.
