Received at the Secy of Police & the Asst. General.

No. 210, dated Simla, the 30th July 1895
From the Gov^t of India, Finance and Commerce Department, To the Secretary of State for India.

We have the honour to forward, for Your Lordship's consideration, a copy of a letter from the Government of Madras requesting sanction to the grant of an extraordinary pension of Rs 4 a month to Thayarammal, widow of one Varadarajulu Nayudu, late a 3rd class constable in the Chingleput Police Force.

2. Varadarajulu Nayudu was, on the 1st February 1893, entrusted with a summons in connection with a case of theft for service on one of a band of Jogis (a wandering and very frequently a criminal tribe), some members of which had a few months before been arrested by him and were ultimately sentenced to terms of imprisonment. The constable was last seen in search of the Jogi, and as he never returned it is presumed that he was murdered by some of the gang in the execution of this duty. In the absence, however, of any evidence that such was the case no pension can under rules be granted to his wife, but having regard to the danger to which he was exposed, the

the circumstances of his disappearance, his long and particularly good service and the fact that his wife is left without means of subsistence, we concur with the Government of Madras that the case is one deserving of consideration. We accordingly recommend for Your Lordship's sanction the grant of an extraordinary pension to Thayarammal at the rate of Rs. 2-12 a month, which is the amount of pension admissible to the family of a sepoy killed on service.
