SIR,

The registrar's office, Nannilam, in Tenjore District is held in a government building constructed in 1877. building consists of two rooms measuring 12 ft by 18 ft and 20 ft by 18 ft respectively, in the former of which the records are kept, while the latter is used by the sub-registrar and his clerks. The accommodation provided is found to be insufficient for the records which are contained in 9 almirahs. The single room occupied by the sub-registrar and his clerks originally 4 in number, now 5, is so overcrowded and the parties and witnesses attending the office have not supt standing room, and work is frequently impeded. In these circumstances, I have the honor to request that the Government may please to Sanction the providing of the additional accommodation necessary, viz, a room measuring 30 x 12 ft. The room may be built on the vacant ground to the east of the present building.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient Servant
Srinivasan
Inspector of Revenue
