Subject. Subbayya
TRANSFERS a petition from Subbayya of Singanamala & Ch. d. h. Anantapur, praying that the Sessions case against J. Subbadu and four others taken up for may be renewed and punishment meted out to them.

To
The Secy. of Anantapur
17/11/95
The petn. states as follows:-
On the night of the 11th July last Hyd. - yam Ramayya a Brahman inhabitant of the petn's village and his wife Silamma were simultaneously murdered by J. Subbadu, R. Ramidu, K. Kandigadu, J. Chinakundigadu and B. Kandigadu who are all the inhabitants of the same vil. Hyd. The murdered man Ramayya was a rich Anantapur worth Rs 20000. The above offenders murdered him & his wife after stealing away his property from his house. The village officers and the Police did not were unmindful of this case and did not take care to secure the criminals after immediately after the occurrence of the incident. Within a month from the date of the murder the news was spread & the wife's body had reached the ears of the Dy. Coll. of Anantapur who came to the village in question and instituted an enquiry into the matter. B. Kandigadu one of the criminals at once gave a Kaligudi before the Dy. Coll. and Hyd. - ing every incident in the murder, as if accused. Witnesses were then produced on the information of the prisoners & the case after being enquired into by the Sub. Magistrate of Anantapur was committed to Session.

after 5 P.M.

The victims of the murder were old people and had neither issue nor any relatives. The prosecution therefore was conducted without any interest. The friends of the prisoners bribed the prosecution witnesses and spoiled the case. The Judge thereupon dismissed the case though the principal witnesses deposed in favour of the prosecution. About 6 or 7 years ago two of these criminals K. Kondigadu & Venkalipadu in conjunction with some others had committed the murder of a rich Sowcar in the village and his brother. On that occasion too the Judge released the prisoners. Since then they have been bold enough to repeat the crime. They have always committed a double murder at the same time. The petitioner therefore prays that the records in the above murder case in question may be sent for perusal, that a personal inspection of the village may take place that a full enquiry may be instituted & that proper punishment may be meted out to the criminals. If this is not at once done every inhabitant of the village is in danger the police criminals will be emboldened to do more atrocious acts and if they do even eye witnesses will not come forward with their evidence. The petitioner swears to the truth of his allegations against the criminals. He and his co-villagers are prepared to appeal at their own cost against the Sessions Judge's decision. But they are unable to carry out their resolve for fear of the murderers' weapons. If the case is not taken up for enquiry by Govt. the petitioners have no other alternative but to leave the village for good & all in a body. They again pray that proper punishment may be meted out to the offenders.
