GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

SIR,

IN reply to your letter No. 821-S., dated the 11th September 1895, I am directed to say that the Government of India have no objection to the Local Government or, under its general sanction, the Inspector-General of Jails, authorizing the payment of the actual travelling expenses of jail officials on a pay of less than Rs. 10 a month for joining their first appointments in Government service, when such appointments are, under an authorized system (vide paragraph 17 (2) of Home Department Resolution No. ^{10-Jails}₆₁₀₋₂₃, dated the 9th November 1892), recruited for from a district or province other than that in which the officials appointed reside.

2. Under this order it will be open to the Government of the Punjab to sanction the payment of the sum of Rs. 125 incurred on account of the travelling allowance of the 19 warders recruited in the Bareilly District for service in the Montgomery Central Jail.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

L. M. THORNTON,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
