CURRENT No. 908 of 1895

His Excellency the Right Honorable, the Governor General in Council of India Calcutta.

The Respectful appeal petition presented by Venkatesh Chellam late and Class Constable No 85 of the Town Station
 No II of the Madurai District.

1. That the poor and helpless petitioner was recruited in 1886, he was on the Govern= ment duty for day and night from the last about 9 (nine) years' service in the Police Force. But his pay was in= sufficient to cover his large family and children of 10 sons; while so, it is usual to the constables to get some black marks occasionally, but some days after, those black marks should be struck off from the defaulter's Book.

2. Even being the case, the Superintendent believed the false reports of some Head Constables and Petty officers, he dismiss= ed this poor petitioner illegally on the 1st October 1894. But the Superintendent without considering this poor petitioner's claim of about 9 years' service for day and night duty, he removed this poor man from the Government Service.
 But it is absolutely impossible to pass an order of his dismissal.
 But the defaulter's sheet No 85, there is mentioned

26-10-95.

mentioned to defaulter, in which, this poor petitioner obtained them owing to the enmity between him and one 4th grade Head Constable (Harker or Jain) and others.

4- But their intention was to remove him from his 9 years service and so, the Sup^{dt} believed their false statements to pass an order of his dismissal.

5- This petitioner had afterwards appealed to the Deputy Inspector General of Police who did not consider this poor man's claim and confirmed the Sup^{dt}'s order on the 30th November 1894.

6- He had afterwards appealed to the Inspector General of Police who did not consider this poor man's claim of very small payment of Rs 7 per mensem to the duties of day and night as a head constable and confirmed the order of the Deputy Inspector General of Police on the 10th February 1895.

7- He had afterwards appealed to the Government of Madras who did not consider this poor man's claim of about 9 years service of the Madras Police Force as a constable to work day and night with a very small salary of Rs 7 per mensem and confirmed the order of the Inspector General of Police Force on the 5th July 1895 in L No 759 by one petition of appeal and on the 15th August 1895 in No 1706 by another petition of appeal.

8- When he was on his duty, he dedicated 3 cases and received some reward and obtained a good service. But 2 cases of of doctory which were sentenced by the District and Sessions Judge of Madras, in which, he obtained nothing of any kind of reward. But he received a reward of the order of his dismissal from his service of 9 (nine) years. But he wanted to receive his daily pay to which the Sup^{dt} stoutly denied to pay him. But the reason is to his dismissal order only to the effect of his keeping - specification. But the order of the Madras Government went - prevented him to join the Madras Police Force from the last one year & punishment, which will do and he will in future save his service to add with his former service of 9 1/2 years in order to get him the pension of very poor scale. He thinks himself this punishment seems as to his death which will not protect him and his large family and children. But he has nothing in his hand but this Government Service to protect him in all his life.

He therefore prays that your Excellency may graciously be pleased to cancel of the order of the Lower Courts and re-take him to his service of the 2nd class constable No 85 of the Madras District with retrospective effect and thus protect him.

For which an act of charity and benevolence, poor and helpless petitioners shall as in duty bound ever pray -
